

Corporate Governance Statement 2021

CHAIRMAN'S INTRODUCTION

Dear Shareholders,

In 2021 the Afarak group improved despite the world-wide pandemic and managed a turnaround to reduce our debts and create positive results. We downsized our operations in South Africa by selling the Ilitha mine and the ownership in Mogale Alloys was terminated.

The market prices increased throughout the year contributing to boosting of the specialty business segment. Logistics and supply chains suffered many disruptions. The energy costs increased substantially as well as transportation costs. The ferrochrome production in 2021 was slightly higher than the year before. In the year 2022 a market normalization was expected to happen, but the world geopolitical situation with the war in Ukraine, will influence and change the world trade volumes substantially and most likely lead to more volatile prices.

Due to the changes in the market we decided to resume some of our mining activity in South Africa. We will continue in Germany, as in 2021, to be in full production with full orderbooks for the coming months. Further we will now ramp up the production plants in our Serbian magnesia project, which has a great potential.

As a board, we will continue to support our management to enable them to implement initiatives to strengthen our operations and ensuring delivery of our long-term strategy.

Afarak's position as a vertically integrated producer of specialty alloys; acting as a miner, producer and marketer of its products enabling our group to adapt better to the changing market circumstances and to extract value at every stage of this process. Our ability to be specialist producers as well as miners, will further support our resilience and adaptability.

As a company we also continue to be committed to safety and sustainability. Our focus remains on ensuring a "Zero Harm" policy and we are proud and thankful that no fatalities happened in 2021. We continued our work to ensure that safety of our employees is prioritised across all production units including health education and health promotion. We work to extract resources safely, responsibly and cost-effectively to mitigate our environmental impact and support our host communities. We recognize the value of multi-stakeholder engagement and tackle these challenges together with our management, employees, unions and host communities.

Every year we participate in several initiatives across many areas including our host communities in South Africa and Turkey. Our support has extended beyond charitable donations towards assisting NGOs and educational services.

Afarak Group is determined to have a strong corporate governance in place. Our aim is to achieve good governance by fulfilling our obligations of a publicly listed company.

The Board continued to be smaller than a couple of years ago, but still has diversity of skills and expertise as is required to be more active and involved to maintain oversight of the business, support management, improve information flows and maintain a stable environment for strategic thinking and development. I thank all the board members for their continuing commitment and contribution in 2021, as they have had multiple duties and responsibilities and jointly participated in all tasks usually carried by Board committees.

As always, we remain mindful of the trust shareholders place in us as elected Directors and of our responsibilities towards them. We seek to apply rigorous governance standards in our work that is described in the Governance Review.

I am confident that we have a leadership team with the resolve and commitment to ensure Afarak return to growth, especially seeing increasing chrome-ore and ferro-chrome market prices, and with our German works already in full production. Afarak will continue as an innovator of value-added ferrochrome, chrome-ore and magnesia products with ability to deliver value for customers and shareholders.

As I continue to communicate with our employees around the world, I am again and again reminded that our achievements are only made possible by our skilled, hard-working and very talented team. I am grateful for all their efforts and impressive commitment throughout another challenging year and look forward to work with them towards delivering volume growth, positive cash flow and profitability.

GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

The management and control of Afarak Group Plc and its subsidiaries (“Group”) is divided between the shareholders, the Board of Directors (“Board”), supported by the Board’s audit and risk management committee, nomination and remuneration committee and the Chief Executive Officer.

General Meeting

Afarak’s ultimate decision-making body is the shareholders’ General Meeting which convenes once a year and is held within six months of the end of the financial year. Pursuant to the Company’s Articles of Association, the convening notice for a General Meeting will be published on the Group’s website and in a stock exchange release no earlier than two months, and no later than 21 days, prior to the General Meeting or nine days prior to the record date of the General Meeting.

The notice of a General Meeting, the proposals for resolutions, and the documents to be submitted to the General Meeting, such as the financial statements, the annual report and the auditor’s report, will be available on the Group’s website and at the Group’s office in Helsinki at least three weeks before the meeting. The resolutions passed by the General Meeting will be published as a stock exchange release without undue delay and will be available on the Group’s website, along with the minutes of the General Meeting, no later than two weeks after the meeting.

Shareholders have the right to add items falling within the scope of the Annual General Meeting to the meeting’s agenda. The request must be submitted to the Board of Directors in advance so that the item can be included to the notice. Afarak publishes the details of how and when to submit the requests to the Board on its website.

The Company uses the Annual General Meeting to develop an understanding of the views of its shareholders about the Company.

An Extraordinary General Meeting can be convened if the Board of Directors deems it necessary or if the auditor of the Company or the shareholders owning at least 10 percent of the shares demand one in writing in order to deal with a specific matter, or if it is required by law or other regulations.

The most significant items on the Annual General Meeting’s agenda include:

- Approving the year’s financial statements;
- Confirming the financial year’s profit or loss, the dividend distribution or other distribution, such as capital redemption;

- Determining the number of directors on the Board of Directors, their remuneration and electing those directors to the Board; and
- Electing the auditor or auditors and approving their fees.

In addition, certain significant matters (such as amending the Articles of Association or deciding on a capital increase) require a resolution by the shareholders in a General Meeting.

General Meetings are organised in a manner that permits shareholders to exercise their ownership rights effectively. A shareholder wishing to exercise his or her ownership rights shall register for a General Meeting in the manner stated in the notice of meeting. All the shareholders who have been registered in the Company's shareholder register, maintained by Euroclear Finland Ltd, on the record date of the meeting have the right to attend a General Meeting, provided they have delivered a proper notice to attend the meeting. Holders of nominee registered shares may be registered temporarily on the shareholder register, and they are advised to request further instructions from their custodian bank regarding the temporary registration and issuing of a proxy document.

Resolutions by a General Meeting usually require a simple majority. Certain resolutions, however, such as amending the Articles of Association and directed share issues require a qualified majority represented by shares, and the votes conferred by the shares, at the General Meeting.

The majority of the Board members, if not all, attend General Meetings together with the CEO and the auditor. In addition, if a person is proposed for election as a director for the first time, he or she will also attend the General Meeting.

INTERNAL CONTROL

The principles of internal control are confirmed by the Board. The Group's EMT members are in charge of the day-to-day business management and administrative control in their respective responsibility areas.

Main Principles of Risk Management and Internal Control

The purpose of risk management is to identify, evaluate and mitigate the potential risks that could impact the Group's business and the implementation of its strategy, and to ensure that risks are proportional to the Group's risk-bearing capacity.

The Group's risk management policy is approved by the Board of Directors and defines the objectives, approaches and areas of responsibility of risk management activities. The Group's key risks are reviewed and assessed by the Board on a regular basis. The Group's business segments, and the business units within those segments, are primarily responsible for managing their risks, their financial performance and their compliance with the Group's risk management policies and internal control procedures.

The Board of Directors is responsible for organising and maintaining adequate and effective internal control performed by the senior and executive management as well as other Afarak personnel and assisted by third-party experts when appropriate.

The Board of Directors decides on the Group's management system and the corporate and organisational structure required by each business unit with a view to providing solid foundations for effective internal control. Internal control and risk management related to financial reporting at the Group level are performed in a coordinated way by a function independent of the business areas. Each subsidiary's executive management is responsible for the implementation of internal control and risk management to the agreed Group principles and guidelines.

The system of internal control provides reasonable rather than absolute assurance that Afarak's business objectives will be achieved within the risk tolerance levels defined by the Board.

Internal control refers to elements of financial and operational management which are designed to ensure:

- Achievement of defined performance targets;
- Efficient use of resources and protection of assets;
- Effective management of risks;
- Accurate, timely and continuous delivery of financial and operational information;
- Full compliance with laws and regulations as well as internal policies; and
- Business continuity through secure systems and stable operating procedures.

The Structure of Internal Control Systems

The main structural elements of the Group's internal control system are:

- The risk management and internal control policies and principles defined by the Board;
- Implementation of the policies and principles under the supervision of Group management;
- Supervision of the efficiency and functionality of the business operations by Group management;
- Supervision of the quality and compliance of the financial reporting by the Group finance department;
- An effective control environment within all organisational levels and business units, including tailored controls for each business process; and
- Internal audits conducted as and when needed.

The Internal Control of the Financial Reporting Process

The Group's financial organisation is structured so that each business unit has its own finance function, but overall financial management including accounting, taxation and financing is centralised within the Group's parent company.

The Group finance department is responsible for ensuring the compliance, quality and timeliness of the Group's external and internal financial reporting. The internal control mechanisms are based on the policies, procedures and authorisations established and approved by the Board. In addition to control mechanisms, training and sharing of knowledge are also significant tools of internal control.

Each business unit has its own finance function which reports to the Group Finance. The business unit's finance function is responsible for the unit's accounting and daily financial operations and internal reporting. The finance function and administration is overseen by the unit's management team and reports to the head of the business unit's segment.

The tasks of the Group Finance consist, among other things, of monthly consolidation of the Group's accounts, preparation of the quarterly interim reports and consolidated financial statements, financing of the Group, and tax planning.

Consolidated financial statements are prepared by using consolidation software. The accounting of the Company's subsidiaries is carried out by accounting systems and the accountants within each subsidiary enter the accounting information directly into the consolidation system, or in some cases send the information in a predefined format to the Group's financial administration to be consolidated.

Roles and Responsibilities Regarding Risk Management and Internal Control

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for the administration and the proper organisation of the Group's operations and approves all internal control, risk management and corporate governance policies. The Board establishes the risk-taking level and risk-bearing capacity of the Group and reassess them on a regular basis as part of the Group's strategy and goal-setting process. The Board reports to the shareholders of the Company.

Audit and Risk Management Committee

The Audit and Risk Management Committee is responsible for the following internal control related activities:

- Monitoring the reporting process of the financial statements;
- Supervising the financial reporting process;
- Monitoring the efficiency of the Group's internal control, internal audit and risk management systems; and
- Monitoring the statutory audit of the financial statements and consolidated financial statements.

Group Management

The Group's management is in charge of the day-to-day management of the Group in accordance with the instructions and orders given by the Board. It sets the framework of the internal control environment and is in charge of the Group's risk management process and its continuous development. This includes allocation of resources to the work and continuous review of the risk management policies, as well as defining the principles of operation and overall processes.

External Audit

According to the Articles of Association, the Annual General Meeting of shareholders elects the Company's auditor, which must be a firm authorised by the Finnish Central Chamber of Commerce; otherwise the Company will have one main auditor and one deputy auditor. The auditor's term is for one year and finishes at the end of the first General Meeting following election.

During Afarak's Extraordinary General Meeting held in August 2021, Authorised Public Accountant Tietotili Audit Oy was elected as auditor, with Authorised Public Accountant Urpo Salo having the principal responsibility. Tietotili Audit Oy is part of HLB International network of auditors and the subsidiary company auditors also belong to HLB International.
